

Are Wake County SmartStart programs only for low-income families?

While many of Wake County SmartStart-funded programs give priority to our neediest children, the organization works to ensure all children in Wake County, birth to 5, have the skills they need to be successful in school and life.