Rob Glover, owner of Rob's Fresh Produce, is a native of Bailey, North Carolina, and has worked on his family farm raising sweet potatoes, soy beans, and cotton since a very young age. Rob decided to diversify his operation in 2003 by raising and selling fresh produce and working with Community Supported Agriculture. Rob has a passion to provide the community with safe, fresh, and local produce.

Don Driver works as a marketing specialist for Rob's Fresh Produce and is the person of contact for this large produce farmer.
